CWVYS Manifesto

This manifesto is presented by the voluntary youth work sector on behalf of, and for, young people in Wales. The sector believes that young people will thrive when the following is achieved:

01 Young people are thriving

- Implement new legislation that defines a statutory function for youth work in Wales
- Creation of a 'Minister for Children and Young People' full cabinet position
- Progression of youth work policy development, ensuring national representation and strategic leadership that places young people at the centre of all planning and best practice issues
- Appointment process for Children's Commissioner for Wales (CCfW) to be reviewed in line with recommendations in the Children's Rights in Wales report produced by the Children, Young People and Education Committee

02 Youth work is accessible and inclusive

- Fully adopt a rights-based approach on behalf of young people in Wales
- Challenge oppression and inequality in the sector
- Ensure there is collaboration and partnership working in the sector – including partnership facilitation plus promoting diversity and inclusion within Wales and internationally

03 Empower youth work volunteers and youth work staff throughout their career

- Provide free access to youth and community courses and incentives for voluntary organisations to support staff and volunteers to access professional and personal development
- Education Workforce Council to register all staff in youth work-related settings

04 Youth work is valued and understood

- Create a National Youth Information Service for the sector and young people
- Support for the creation of a Young Citizens Assembly
- CCfW to work with and for young people up to the age of 25 in line with youth work provision

05 Sustainable model for youth work

- Creation of a national body that brings the voluntary and statutory sector together
- Investment in the sector with transparent and accountable non-hypothecated monies
- Investment in the marketing and communications of the youth work services sector
